

SECTION IV: Policy

Commercial Sales and Solicitations on UTTC Campus Property

Sales persons or agents for any product, service, proposition, or cause are prohibited from soliciting employees, students, or others on UTTC property or by campus mail systems except as detailed in this policy. This prohibition applies to employees and students as well as to organizations and individuals not affiliated with UTTC. No solicitation may be conducted in any building or structure on the UTTC campus except by the agents of UTTC acting in the course and scope of their agency or employment, or by recognized student organizations on the UTTC campus. Solicitors' actions must be in accordance with this section and UTTC policy

Exceptions

Specific exceptions to this policy can be found in Section 4-6 of the UTTC Employee Handbook. In addition thereto, exceptions may be granted, in writing, by the UTTC Safety & Security Director when it relates to sales in the campus housing areas on the UTTC campus. In this event, a permit or written authorization will be issued to the sales person or agent.
